

From: Brian Raboin
Sent: Friday, October 14, 2016 4:26 PM
To: Hal Bastian
Cc: lance.oishi@lacity.org; Laura Esparza; Sean Lewis
Subject: Re: 10/14/16- 3:50pm

He has housing and goes home every day. He stays in the veterans shelter. He just comes to the bench and sits. We make him several times a day. If he stays awake he is not breaking any laws. It is a tough thing to deal with for sure. PATH checks on him weekly to make sure he is ok health wise.

Brian K. Raboin
Vice President of Operations

Downtown Center Business Improvement District
640 S. Olive Street | Los Angeles, CA 90014
Call: 213-624-2425 I Fax: 213-615-1655
Web: DowntownLA.com

On Oct 14, 2016, at 15:55, Hal Bastian <hal@halbastian.com> wrote:

Same man. He is dirty and smells of urine, thus preventing others from using the bench. Looks like he was recently hospitalized.

<IMG_8997.JPG>

Sent from my iPhone